'SMALL WORK SALON' FEATURED AT UD GALLERY

DAYTON, Ohio -- A visual feast on an intimate scale will be featured in "Small Work Salon," an art exhibit to be held Aug. 24 through Sept. 24 in the University of Dayton's Rike Center Art Gallery.

A reception in honor of the artists will be held Tuesday, Sept. 3, from 7 to 9 p.m. in the gallery. Refreshments will be served. Admission to the gallery and reception is free and open to the public.

Artists chosen for the show, including sculptors, ceramists, painters and printmakers, will exhibit two pieces each. All of the works chosen for the show were limited to a size of 15 inches and smaller. Ten of the 29 artists are from Ohio, with Victoria Waltz and Paul Sanders representing Dayton. Additional artists are from across the nation.

Hours at UD's Rike Center Gallery are 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Monday through Friday and 1:30 to 4:30 p.m. Saturday and Sunday.
